ANNUAL REPORT

2017 - 2018

A large, semi-transparent photograph serves as the background for the lower half of the cover. It depicts a person from behind, wearing a dark jacket and trousers, carrying a very large, heavy bundle of dry sticks or branches on their head. The person is walking through what appears to be a field or a rural area. In the background, there are some simple buildings and trees under a clear sky.

Lets buck up together to create a kind of utopia in our society where every one has the opportunity to live a productive and a happy life, where no one is denied any basic right irrespective of the way God has created them.

SKILL DEVELOPMENT ACTIVITIES

In India nearly 65% population is of young people having age below 35 years. Lot of them are educated but a large numbers of them are school dropout. Unemployment in India is big problem. In educated population a large numbers do not have proper skill to get suitable job or to start their own livelihood. The condition of school dropout is even more worst. That is why the government of India has initiated skill development activities in very focused manner by opening a new ministry specially for Skill Development.

EDUCATE A CHILD (EACH)

ENGLISH WORKSHOP

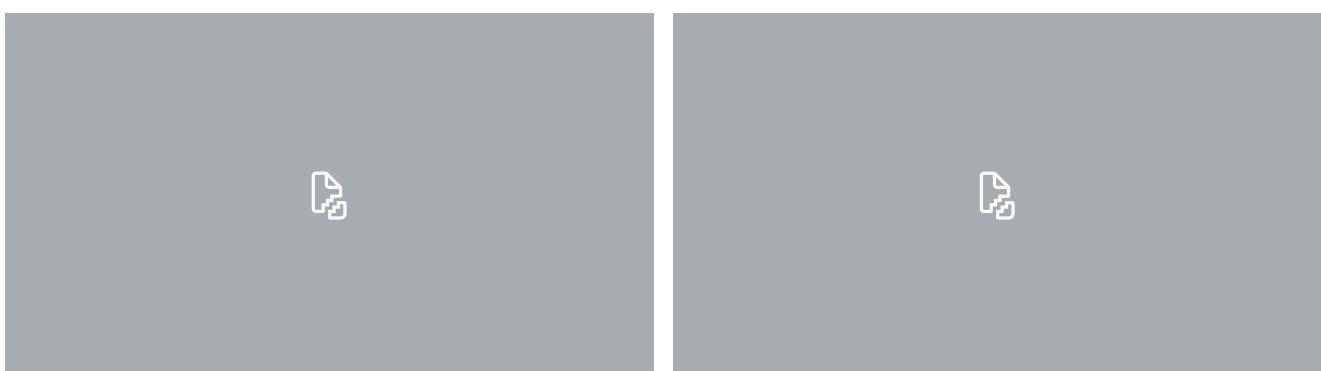

The fourth English Workshop came to end on 22nd June 2017. The classes which commenced on 28th May ended today successfully. The 1 & a half hour classes were held 5 days a week from 10 in the morning and around 55 children have been a part of this workshop. Despite the scorching heat, the teachers were committed to conduct quality classes and the students were regular and sincere to attend and benefit from them.

It's not how much we give but how much love we put into giving

Like previous years, this year too, the workshop was led by member Mr. Vikrant Kumar Singh with Pallavi Singh. They were assisted by young volunteers Isha from Mahagun Maple, Agrima, Sarahna, Pooja, Jagriti, Priyamvada, Sugandha from Purnea Bihar.

The classes mainly focused on improving the language skills of the children, concentrating on their vocabulary, pronunciation, reading & speaking skills. The entire syllabus and modules were designed by member Pallavi Singh and the overall coordination of the workshop was supervised by member Keka.

The students were made to undergo a comprehensive test based on what had been taught to them throughout the month. Based on their performance, a prize distribution ceremony was held at Community Centre, Purnea Bihar on 22nd to felicitate meritorious students of the workshop as well as the volunteer teachers. Prizes were given under the titles of Star Performers and Commendable Improvement under each age group. The volunteer teachers were awarded certificates to recognize their participation in this noble cause. Sunshine girls sang melodious "Rang aisa bharo..." and surprised everyone with their beautiful voice. After the prize distribution ceremony, the children were given refreshments all sponsored by 24 Mantra Organic. Our regular teachers Pallavi Singh and Tanya were presented gifts from Rusta.

'Navyug Foundation' aim to build a society in which every child attains the right to survival, protection, development and participation. Our NGO offer care for needy children, provision of healthcare and educational facilities, scholarships for the needy students and a home for orphans.

Navyug Foundation help to work towards elimination of practice of child labor, child sexual abuse, and other issues of child rights and to take appropriate steps for their rehabilitation.

YOUTH EMPOWERMENT

A growing number of India's youth need the right educational infrastructure to develop skills and adequate opportunities to get employed or become entrepreneurs. However, the wide gap between those who have access to education and skill development opportunities and those who do not, is a challenge that has to be overcome.

'Navyug Foundation' work towards reducing the gap between those who have access to education and skill development opportunities and those who do not have. 'Navyug Foundation' aim to empower young people to contribute positively to society by working together on issues related to health, education, human rights, civic education, anti-corruption and other development issues; Help to maintain unity, understanding, cooperation, tolerance, peace and harmony among the youth communities in particular and public in general; Provide proactive leadership and advocacy and shape the agenda on issues affecting young people and youth services; Collaborate on issues that affect young people and youth workers; Ensure youth's organizational development, efficiency, effectiveness and good governance; Address the unemployment problem in the state; For any other activities relating to youth empowerment.
